SENIOR CLASS WILLS OF '85

I, Sam Daily, being of perverted mind and large body, bequeath to the following: To Harold Sills, the ability not to get embarrassed after a long weekend. (P.J.) To Brad Turbyville, the ability to get a nut. (P.J.) To Danny Little, the ability not to go out with a nun. (P.J.) To J. W. Benham, the ability to go to the bathroom without laughing. And to every one else in Palmersville, the ability to look at school as one big joke and keep on laughing.

I, Danny Joe Mansfield, will to the following: To Harold Wayne, I will the ability to park behind the community center instead of in front. To Rodger, the ability to stay out of trouble on the weekends. To little Jeff, the ability to find a better girlfriend than M.D.

I, Mary Perry, will to my brother Paul, and my cousins, Connie, Kim, and Kelli, all the great years I've had at P.H.S., and to next year's reporters of the "Palmersville School News," I will all the patience in the world and an express mailing company to get the paper in before the deadline.

I, Chris Harris, being of what I am not what you think, hereby leave the following: Ralph Cobb, the ability to keep someone warm without having to say wait a minute, I'm busy. To Keith, being the last one to graduate, 3 more fun years at P.H.S. (hang in there). To Mark Hardy, the ability to have a muscle as big as mine. (Keep working).

I, William Rainbolt, being of sound mind and sound body will the following: To Kevin S., my height and ability to aim straight, along with my desire to own a Harley. To Mark H., I will the ability to have a muscle and the ability not to be such a chicken . . .

I, Jonathan T. (tanker) Welch, bequeath the following: To Stevie R., one well-groomed Billie goat; to Woody, I will one week at the Jon Welch School of Women; to Robin, the ability to get to school on time; to Mr. Hale, all my Sgt. Rock comic books; to Ricky C., one well-oiled M-60 tank; and to Ann Lackey, all my love.

I, Lynnette Priest, being of sound body and mixed-up mind, will to Denny, the patience to wait for people. To Jackie and Sandra, the ability to behave on the bus. To Tim C., the ability to get along with all my old teachers. Last but not least, I will to the Junior class the ability to work together and get along, all at the same time. GOOD LUCK!!

I, Dania Bowlin, being of no mind and unproportioned body will to the following: To Michelle, a pink nightie to roam the dorm halls in. (P.J.) To Stephanie and Angie, the ability to get into trouble every now and then; and to Dawn, the ability to stay out of trouble. To Rhonda, one more great year at P.H.S.

I, Kristi (Murt) Murphy, being the small hick that I am, will to the following: To Gath, the ability to cross a bridge without stopping! To Andi B., the ability to call anybody who gets in her way a S.S.S. (P.J.) To Jennifer and Terri, the ability to get tough.

David Parnell, being of small mind and great body, will to the following: to Harold Wayne, the bility to get rid of Z.T.; to Kevin M., my massive legs for jumping; to Lisa, a heavy duty slingshot; to obin, a fifth of green Kool-Aid for when the going gets tough; to Jim L., a new smoking buddy; nd to Christi, anything she wants.

Randy Ray, will all my basketball ability to my little brother Chris Ray; to Stevie, the ability to eep from breaking any more bones, and most of all, I will Lori Snider, myself.

Elbert Arnold, being of mischievous mind and wasted body, do hereby bequeath the following: Brad T., enough "Sinse" to be dangerous. (P.J.); Harold Sills, the ability not to be P.W. (P.J.) To Danny Little, a nun. (P.J.) To this year's Freshmen, the ability to be Awesome! To Tina Harrison, all ny love and care for her. And finally to anyone I left out, High Times at P.H.S.

Vickie Potts (Moe), being of short body and small feet, will to the following: To David P., I leave his nickname, Kermit; may he never forget it. To Ricky C., a pair of Scissors to keep the hair trimmed out his braces. (P.J.) To Melanie (Curly) and Carol (Larry), more crazy times like we used to have. To Harold Wayne (Sam), one drowned, floating worm. (P.J.) To Shannon M., I leave the ability to put up with Mr. Childs when the time comes. To Lisa, a happy life with Eric, and to everyone else, high times at P.H.S.

I, Jeffrey Turner, being of wasted mind and polluted body will to the following: to Danny Little, one well-used picnic table, and to Brad, the privilege of cleaning that table.

I, Scott Billingsby, being of sound mind and body will the following: I will the school the ability to call Ms. Dunning by her rightful name (Tootie), to Stevie Gay, one well-groomed nannie goat.

I, Lori Hill, being of (temporarily) large body and small mind, will to the following: To my sister, Julie, five more hectic years at P.H.S., and my niece, all my love. To Rick, Len, Keith, Jeff, and Deana, one swift kick.

I, Scott Smith, will to the following: to Kevin Smethwick a bigger arm. To J.W., a future in P.H.S, and to my sister, Katrina, my grades.

I, Denise Stow, will to next year's newspaper writers: a big pad of paper, a trash can, lots of erasers, and a lot of patience with Mrs. Oliver. I will to anyone that rides David C.'s bus the ability to plug your ears. I will to Cathy C., Becky N., Tabby P., and Lori S., the chance next year (if you're lucky) to drive Mrs. Cannon's Z-28. And I will to next year's annual staff, the ability to be on it and do nothing.

I, Daniel Coday, being of sound mind and pigeon-toed body, will to the following: To Larry S., a new car and a rubber telephone pole; to Ricky C., one fully assembled car; to Dean J., a box of plastic forks; to Deanna J., one K.M. poster; and to everyone else, all the good times at P.H.S. and one free of charge — Gotcha!

I, Lisa Donoho, being of short body and sometimes confused mind will to the following: To Michelle, a bank to keep her weekend allowance in. To Mike, my grades so he can finally get away from Mr. Hale. To next year's Seniors, the ability to stay off the annual staff. To Eric, I will myself, if I don't drive him crazy before the year is over.

Mary, you are definitely unique! I, however, enjoy working with you. You have such a bubbly personality, and that personality will certainly aid in your future success. I wish for you the very best that life has to offer, and I also wish for you a mild case of laryngitis! (Just Kidding). Good luck always and have a great vacation!

Love,
B. Oliver

For the past twelve years, you have demonstrated your various abilities academically, athletically, and socially. You have endeavored to excel individually as well as collectively. The time has now come for you to demonstrate to others the knowledge that you have attained.

As you make preparation for your departure from Palmersville High School, may you affectionately remember your past experiences and apply that knowledge to the various and numerous challenges which you will soon encounter.

Richard Heath
Beth Oliver

Friends and classmates, as we step out into the world to make our dreams come true, we will always remember the friendships we shared and the lessons we learned at P.H.S.

Let us eagerly face the future with courage, hope, and grateful hearts with thanks to all who have helped us come this far.

Best wishes and farewell.

Alma Mater

Dear Palmersville, Our Alma Mater
Thy Praise We Sing With Heart and Voice.
Thy Black and Gold Flow Proudly O'er Us,
While in Thy Glory We Rejoice.
So Stand Thy Brave Old Trees About Thee,
Strong as Thy Branches Wave in Storm.
So Stand Thy Children to Defend Thee,
While Love in Every Heart Beats Warm.

In the years to come, we hope as you leaf through these pages, you will relive many treasured moments spent at P.H.S. We have tried to put these words into pictures. May this yearbook always bring to your mind the fondest of memories.

We would like to express our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Doc Bowlin for letting us use their house for pictures, and especially to Mrs. Oliver and Mr. Heath for their dedication and support throughout our Senior year.
